

CHRISTIAN ACTIVITY CENTER

Serving East St. Louis and the Olivette Park neighborhood, CAC fills the out of school hours for more than 380 children with love and attention in every program. Reading, writing, and math are a must for every child, and our classes and clubs run the gamut from athletics and chess to martial arts and music. CAC offers tutoring, college and work readiness programs, and leadership development, with each program undergirded with our belief that faith must be central to all things.

With friends and partners walking alongside the Center, CAC has achieved life-changing results: more than 97% of CAC youth graduate from high school and more than 74% of CAC youth pursue post-secondary education. Learn more about the Christian Activity Center at www.cacesl.org.
